

Emory Gynecology and Obstetrics Call Guidelines: Female Pelvic Medicine and Reconstructive Surgery

V2 January 2016

Call will be assigned to one physician each weekend; clinical responsibilities have not changed and call will be distributed evenly.

All no call requests will need to be routed through QGenda.

Call will be published with the FPMRS schedule in QGenda and is noted as “FPMRS Call.”

To request ‘no call’

1. Use the request tab and functionality in QGenda (see QGenda quick guide)
2. request the ‘no call’ task for the Saturday of a weekend you do not want call
 - i. Sunday will automatically be blocked off
3. You are limited to 3 ‘no call’ requests per month

Every effort will be made to accommodate requests. However, assignments and requests are not guaranteed until approval is made or a schedule is published.

Only submissions received by the deadlines listed below will be considered. If you have a conflict, it is your responsibility to arrange a swap or coverage with another faculty member and enter it into QGenda.

No call Requests for	are due in Qgenda by
